

“I have always been a supporter of organized labor and for all employees to have the right to organize and bargain and to be represented by a Union.” – Lake County Sheriff John Buncich

“The Northwest Indiana Federation of Labor and the over 40,000 hard working men and women in the region it represents wholeheartedly supports the Lake County 911 Dispatchers in their efforts to form a Union and secure a voice in their workplace through a collective bargaining agreement.”

– Dan Murchek, President-Lake County Police Association Local 72,
President- Northwest Indiana Federation of Labor

WE SUPPORT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

“We are always stronger together – and that’s especially true when it comes to work place issues. The Indiana AFL-CIO and the more than 300,000 Hoosiers we represent proudly stand in solidarity with the Lake County 911 Dispatchers and their rights to bargain collectively and will do all we can to support them.”

– Brett Voorhies, Indiana State AFL-CIO President
